

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals
Learn the Laws!

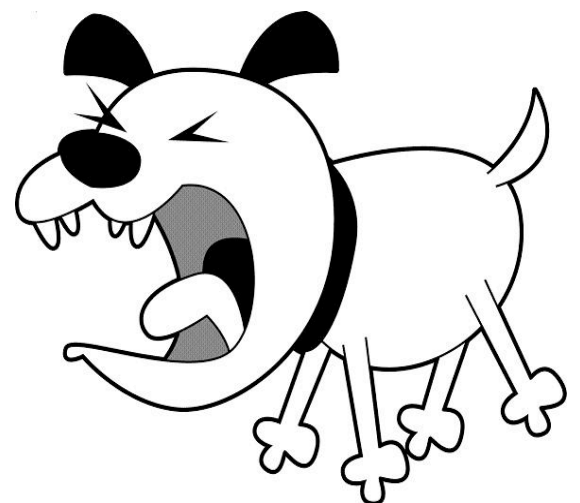

It is illegal to use explosives, poisons, electricity, corrosive substances, firearms other than anesthesia guns and humane traps to capture animals.

Intentionally maltreating or causing harm to animals to the degree that render the said animal to be mutilated, to result in functional failure of fatal organs, or death will result in a fine of NT$100,000 - $500,000.

If you think someone is breaking this law, please contact us!

Let's work together to make a better
Taiwan for both people and animals!
